Moore teaches Native American culture to UCS 4th graders

"4th Grade was honored to have Living Historian, Monica Moore visit last week. She shared with them some skills used by Native Americans and taught them more about the lifestyle of local Creek Indians. This visit aligned with 4th grade's current study of the culture of Native American's in Alabama and how their lives were impacted by European Exploration."

Middle school Trailblazers learn about HOA's

"Middle school students are finishing up their DIVE project in Mrs. Tolliver's class, "My Dream Home" with a visit to Northport Edgewater Subdivision. Students visited three lots, had the opportunity to talk with the realtor and subdivision manager, learned about HOA guidelines and enjoyed a fun filled day of learning."

"Congratulations to Mr. Alsbrook's (7th Grade) and Ms. Richardson's (2nd grade) classes for receiving the Golden Broom Awards for the week of Sept. 19-23! The Golden Broom is awarded weekly to the class or group who shows exemplary PRIDE IN OUR PLACE. Our Trailblazers are creating habits of cleanliness, pride, and respect."

UCS Elementary Peer Helpers lend a hand

"Our Elementary Peer Helpers had their training retreat on Tuesday, September 20. They spent the day learning the important skills of connecting, listening, understanding, coping, and referring, and having fun doing some team building. These students are now ready to put the Peer Helper motto into action: BE THE GOOD, SHOW THE WAY, LEND A HAND!"
